

Embra[®]e Dalmatia Cruise 2019

aboard Captain Bota

There is nothing as enticing as the clear blue sky touching the crystal waters of the Adriatic when aboard a small passenger ship.

The brand new Captain Bota is a gem in the fleet of yacht-like ships built in the Split shipyard according to the latest EU standards applicable to small ship cruising.

With the friendly crew of 7 members Captain Bota offers an intimate atmosphere accommodating up to 38 passengers in her 18 spacious cabins with private facilities and air conditioning.

Nicely appointed public areas located on the upper deck include a spacious restaurant with panoramic windows adjacent to a large terrace with deck chairs and tables where you can spend your time at leisure and enjoy your open air breakfast. For swim lovers there is a large platform with two ladders as well as public showers.

Sundeck with loungers on the top most level measures 250 square meters and features a wow factor – an open air Jacuzzi.

may realize while feeling the vibe of its bustling promenade, well-appointed cafes, wine stores, shops and restaurants. Join an evening walking tour to learn on the history and heritage of Hvar followed by presentation of centuries long lavender farming tradition. Overnight stay in Hvar.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch

DAY 3 • MONDAY HVAR – KORCULA

Enjoy another tranquil and relaxing day as we smoothly glide towards Korcula Island having a swim break en route. In the late afternoon hours we arrive in the town of Korcula. You will find yourself in front of the town walls and the historic town gate, a reminder of glory and power of this little medieval place. It is just down the street that the famous traveller Marco Polo was born in 1254 coming from a noble family of Korcula town. You can savor all the uniqueness of Korcula by strolling its cobbled, narrow and shady lanes where you will find handcraft stores and shops with jewellery made from local coral germs. Learn about Korcula during our walking tour, enjoy rest of the evening in a laid back atmosphere of this jewel town and find a restaurant at your choice. Overnight stay in Korcula.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch

DAY 4 • TUESDAY KORCULA – DUBROVNIK

Today we sail along the shores of Mljet and Elaphiti islands where we will have a swim stop and lunch before an afternoon arrival in Dubrovnik. Meet our tour guide and board a coach to begin the city tour of Dubrovnik. Enjoy a panoramic drive offering a breathtaking scenery from a hill above Dubrovnik. We will then arrive in the Old Town Dubrovnik, the famous city enlisted as UNESCO's World Heritage site. After the city tour enjoy Dubrovnik on your own pace by exploring additional attractions such as City Walls or take a cable car ride to the hill of Srdj. The return coach transfer is scheduled in the evening hours. You may also choose to return to the ship on your own. Overnight stay in Dubrovnik.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch

DAY 5 • WEDNESDAY DUBROVNIK- ELAPHITI ISLANDS – MLJET ISLAND NATIONAL PARK

After breakfast we set sails for Mljet National park enjoying again the magnificent shores of the Elaphiti Islands, situated northwest from Dubrovnik. This will be another great opportunity to dip yourself in the crystal Adriatic or just relax on board. Lunch will be served during our sailing to Mljet. Explore the National park in the afternoon hours strolling around the Great and Small Lake and take a local boat ride to the Islet of St. Mary to visit the 12th century Benedictine Monastery. Overnight stay on Mljet Island.

DAY 7 • FRIDAY MAKARSKA – PUCISCA (BRAC ISLAND) - SPLIT

Upon crossing the Brac Channel we reach the largest coastal village on Brac Island called - Pucisca. Shiny and white stone facades rising amphitheatrically uphill make this place so unique and famous for its quarries from which stone was excavated to build limestone columns of the White House in Washington DC, The Parliament House in Vienna and many other famous buildings all over the world. Pucisca is also known for Stonemasonry School where students learn to carve local limestone with traditional and unconventional tools that have been used for centuries. In the afternoon hours we will return in Split. In 1700 year-old the historic core of Split inscribed under UNESCO World Heritage - and within a short walk distance from our ship- stands the massive Palace of the Roman Emperor Diocletian, dating back to the 3rd A.D. In the course of time the Old Town of Split developed inside and around the Palace which included three Roman temples and a massive mausoleum. Join us for a walking tour and explore with our tour guide some of the numerous archaeological, historic and cultural sites of Split. Find your favourite restaurant for dinner, have a sip of wine or latte in one of many cafes on the pedestrian promenade called Riva and explore numerous shops in the city centre. Overnight stay in Split.

Optional excursion: National Park Krka. *Reservation and payment on board.

Meals on board: Breakfast, lunch

DAY 8 • SATURDAY SPLIT
