DAY 4 - INNLAND ISTRIA WITH PRIVATE TRUFFLE HUNTING DEMONSTRATION

One of the core reasons Istria is making news in the culinary world is the Istrian truffle and the Motovun Forest in the Livade town in Istria, which is rich in this rare delicacy. Today, you have the opportunity to take part in a private truffle hunting demonstration (depending of the season). Our guide will meet you at the hotel and take you to the town of Livade. Upon arrival you will meet a local farmer and his truffle hunting dogs. They will do a special demonstration of truffle hunting for you where you will learn how truffles are harvested and in company of the farmer and dogs you will also have the chance to try your luck in finding truffles yourself. You will also enjoy a 3 course truffle menu at the famous truffle restaurant Zigante. Afternoon highlight is a privately guided walking tour of Motovun, one of the most picturesque Istrian hilltop towns, made famous by its namesake film festival, held here each summer. Evening at leisure. Overnight in Istria.

DAY 5 - ISTRIA – ROVINJ (ISTRIA)

Today you will be chauffeured from central Istria to the coastal town Rovinj. Considered one of the most beautiful Istrian coastal towns due to its unique appearance, Rovinj is surrounded by 14 islands, islets and rocks. The distinctive Venetian architecture and warm colors along the

After you have checked-in hotel , a private guide will take you for an orientation tour of the city. Evening at leisure. Overnight in Rovinj

DAY 6 - PULA SIGHTSEEING & BRIJUNI ISLAND NATIONAL PARK

Day is reserved for a day trip to Pula, the largest Istrian city which has been its administrative center since ancient Roman times. The history will reveal itself during a privately guided walking tour of Pula including its most famous landmark; the Pula amphitheatre. One of six of the largest surviving Roman amphitheatres in the world, it was once the scene of bloody gladiator fights. Today it is Pula's main cultural venue and is known for its music and film festivals. The historic tour highlights include the Hercules Gate, the 13th century Church of St. Francis and Franciscan monastery. As you descend towards the waterfront, you will come across the Basilica of St. Mary of Formosa. Lunch in Pula or nearby agroturizam to taste authentic products. Transfer to the typical Istrian fishing village Fažana, where is the departure for a half day trip on Brijuni island national park. Return to Rovinj. Overnight in Rovinj.

DAY 7 - ROVINJ – ZADAR

It is time to explore the Croatian Dalmatian coast so today you will go from Rovinj to Zadar, the central coastal city of Northern Dalmatian coast. standing on an almost-isle with much of the old town walls still intact, Zadar has many remarkable quarters and monuments just waiting for you to discover. Starting with city central - the Roman quarter which is home of the Forum and the 9th century AD Church of St. Donat built by the Byzantine Emperor Constantine - you will work your way to Zadar's more recent sights; the Sea Organ and the Installation Greetings to the Sun. Overnight in Zadar

DAY 8 - KRKA NATIONAL PARK & GASTRONOMICAL EXCITE

This morning after you have met your guide and driver at the hotel, you will embark on a discovery journey - a full day guided tour to the Krka National Park. One of seven National Parks in Croatia, Krka National Park is known for the gorgeous seven travertine waterfalls of the Krka River. The stunning panorama includes a tiny island in the middle of the lake Visovac, between two waterfalls, home to a working Franciscan monastery with a very long history. After the days exciting events, you will be transferred back to Zadar in the early evening hours. Overnight in Zadar.

DAY 9 - ZADAR – SPLIT

After breakfast, check out and start your short transportation to Split, the largest city in Middle Dalmatia and central nautical point for the numerous nearby islands. This is the last stretch of the tour that includes you driving; the rest of the trip is chauffeured. While in Split, you will be staying at the boutique hotel in the heart of the city, the historic core. After you check in and
